Merry Christmas Everyone!

Holy cow what a year! Welcome to the very last 'That's The Story' newsletter of 2006! Thanks ever so much for listening over the last 12 months, we've really had some truly amazing events.

Over $7,000 in cash was given away in 2006 to some very talented writers. So, while the holidays are on, get that pen out and write me a story about your school holidays—you never know, you could be one of those 52 story writing winners for 2007!

2006 saw the beginning of our very own 'That's The Story' on-line radio station. Just look out for that dancing radio on the 'That's The Story' website and click on the big, red button. In 2007 the 'That's The Story' on-line radio station will feature some awesome prizes and you could even become a 'That's The Story' announcer—wanna give it a go? Just drop me a line, and I'll see what I can do about getting YOU on the air.

Now of course the big news is the 'That's The Story' Christmas Toy Box. Congratulations to Matty Calman from Hamilton. Matty won the 'That's The Story' Toy Box chocka block filled to the top with toys and, as for that Butterscotch Pony, a $699.00 robotic pony was won by Tamara Irvine from Tawa. That Christmas Eve show was definitely incredible.

Have a fab holiday, be safe, have fun, and don't forget the sunblock.
