

That's the story

kiwi stories for kiwi kids

newsletter nine november 2006

Christmas is just a few weeks away and that's just the perfect time to get the old 'That's The Story' toy box dusted off and get some seriously BIG prizes underway. This year's 'That's The Story' toy box is chocka block filled with toys. All you have to do is write down all the toys that are inside the toy box. Once completed, post your list to me and you're in the draw to win the whole lot.... BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE.... everyone that enters is in to win the gigantic remote-controlled ROBOSAPIEN. And, if you missed the list of toys don't panic, 'cos we'll be repeating that list on the 'That's The Story' radio station. Just head for the website www.thatsthestory.co.nz click on the dancing radio and keep on listening.

We'll be drawing the winner of the 'That's The Story' toy box on the 'That's The Story' Christmas Eve Special, Sunday the 24th of December.

Speaking of the 'That's The Story' radio station, it's been on air for a couple of weeks now and people have been tuning in in their thousands. 24 hours a day, seven days a week, you can listen to 'That's The Story' whenever you like!

Now, last month Zoe gave us a really cool colouring-in competition to have a go at. We got tons of entries. Well done to everyone that entered, it was really hard picking a winner, but we managed it, and that winner is Kalen Gladwin. Congratulations Kalen, you have won your very own i-Pod Shuffle... easy as that. We'll get that posted out to you shortly.

Well, I'd better be off to get those fantastic HUGE prizes sorted out. Keep on listening...

Ronnie

See ya next time!

Did You Know?

- That a frog in the house is meant to be good luck, but changing a horse's name is said to be bad luck.
- That some people also think these are bad luck: opening an umbrella inside, walking under a ladder, breaking a mirror, seeing an owl during the daytime, putting keys on a table. Hmmm?
- That an elephant's trunk has 100,000 muscles. Blimey!
- That you can hear a lion's roar up to 8kms away. Now, that's loud!
- That the word 'sternutation' means to sneeze. Atchoooooo!
