kiwi stories for kiwi kids

newsletter twenty-eight september 2008

Hello there, and welcome to another fantabulous dollop of daylight savings. Crikey, that came around quick, but we made it. Do you know that we've just had the wettest winter in 50 years? I think it'll take about 50 years to dry out all my clothes!

There's been a couple of changes and a few additions to the 'That's The Story' website. The Paper Plus Book Page is going off humungously. Paper plus give us a heap of books to give away every single month. All you have to do is click on the book you want the most, fill out the details, and every week we give one of those books away during 'That's The Story,' 7 till 8am on Classic Hits!

Paper Plus also have the art gallery and, boy oh boy, is there some cool art in there. Have you got a picky in the Paper Plus Art Gallery? If yes, then send us more! If no, then get cracking and post us a pic. There's a really cool art pack from Faber Castell to be won EVERY SINGLE WEEK!

Dunno if you've had a squizz around the games page lately but there's the new Monarch Madness, CRAZY game: one net, a whole lot of butterflies and three levels. Get past all three levels and you're in to win a prize!

We'd love to see more pet pickies on the Butch Pet Page too. Just post us a picky of your pet and we'll pop it on the Butch Pet Page and every we pick a pet that wins a great prize!

There's been some really weird TV programmes to see on 'That's The Story' tv. My fav is 'The Silly Noise Song'... crazy, but cool!

If your toy box is looking a little empty, have a go at the IQ Toys I Want One Of Those Page. There's a whole heap of toys, take your pick, click on the toy you want the most, fill out the details and Sunday morning, between 7 and 8 during 'That's The Story' on Classic Hits, we'll give one of those toys away!

Speaking of giving toys away, the 'That's The Story' Christmas Toy Box is coming back! Ten weeks before Christmas, we'll have the 'That's The Story' Toy Box up on the 'That's The Story' website. Each week we'll pop another prize in the toy box, so by week ten there will be ten really amazing toys to be won, so from October the 12th, pop back every week to see what's new in the toy box. We'll have some truly amazing prizes, including a very special major prize, but that's a secret for now. Remember, October 12th is when all will be revealed.

Enjoy daylight savings, and I'll catch ya Sunday, on 'That's The Story', from 7 till 8 on Classic Hits.
Ronnie

Interesting Info

- Why don't haircuts hurt? The only part of our hair that is alive is the part underneath the scalp (or skin); that's why it hurts when someone pulls our hair. The rest of our hair is already dead!
- How fast does our hair grow? Our hair grows about 0.4mm every day—that's about 15cm per year. The hair on our head grows constantly, but the hair on our arms or legs is programmed to stop once it gets to a certain length. Good job too, else we'd be really hairy, aye!!!
- Why do we have eyebrows? Eyebrows stop rain or sweat from running into our eyes. They also help us to communicate. How many people do you know who raise their eyebrows instead of saying 'hello'?
- Did you know that dogs can have fleas, but fleas can't have dogs? Think about it...
