newsletter four june 2006

Holy cow—what a month! Welcome to the June 'That's The Story' newsletter—it's all a bit messy around here. We've got a new room for the 'I Found The Lolly' game on the website now under construction, and there's builders and carpenters all over the show putting up walls, building doors and adding all sorts of surprising little features, so keep your eye on 'I Found The Lolly' on the website: www.thatsthestory.co.nz, 'cause it's soon all about to change.

Speaking of the website, hope you've had a go at guessing the mystery voice. Guess it right and you're in to win an i-Pod shuffle. We'll have a new celebrity every month and every month we'll give away another i-Pod shuffle. We've got a whole heap of stories on the website coming soon too, over 16 stories to listen to—crikey, that's a lot of listening!

Oh, before I forget, 'Happy Birthday,' to Calum O'Connor, Debrah Sampson and Amanda Jacobs. A little birdie told me it was your birthdays this month so 'many happy returns' and hope the birthday fairies were good to you. If you've got a birthday coming up, drop me a line and I'll give you a mention on the show and in the newsletter. Have a great month and if you happen to be knee-deep in snow, keep nice and warm, remember, the shortest day has been and gone, and every day is starting to get just a little bit brighter.

See you Sunday!

Ronnie
